CALIFORNIA

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—The Eureka Turnverein [illegible] between Pine and California streets, which cost, all complete, $[illegible], exclusive of the lot, which cost $6,000, was formally dedicated yesterday. The Society now numbers 126 active members, with a large class of boy pupils.

The ship [illegible], which arrived from Wellington yesterday, had a terrible rough passage and was considerably damaged during the trip.

The German man-of-war [illegible] will arrive from Japan in a few days. As this is the first German war vessel ever entering this port, preparations are being made to give her officers a fitting welcome.

Fred [illegible] alias Schwartz, from the city prison, improved his half holiday yesterday by committing a burglary on Fifteenth street, and was brought back to his old quarters and locked up on a [illegible] prison charge.

The jury in the 15th district court at Martinez on the fourth trial of James Hewes, indicted for arson, disagreed and were discharged on Saturday, and the fifth trial will commence to-day, a large venire having been provided. This is the celebrated squatter case, the defendant being charged with burning his barns and causing the death of eighteen horses and the destruction of a large amount of grain and other property.

The Civil Service

[illegible] the President [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] with the [illegible] political [illegible] fidelity [illegible] will be expected from all officers [illegible] of the public service. Political assessments, as they are called, have been forbidden within the various Departments, and while the right of all persons in official position to take part in politics is acknowledged, and the elective franchise is recognized as a high trust to be duly [illegible] it must [illegible] the employment of the Government or in private life honesty and efficiency, not political activity, will determine the tenure of office.

U. S. GRANT.

[illegible] According to the New York Herald frauds in the tobacco and whisky business amounting to the handsome sum of one hundred and sixty millions of dollars were perpetrated [illegible] administration of [illegible] Bailey in New York. Bailey, who is a fugitive from justice in South America, was one of Horace Greeley's proteges in New York. Children are taking it themselves to the reprehensible practice of committing suicide to a very alarming extent nowadays. The latest reported instance is that of a boy at Moscow, Ohio, who shot himself with a rifle because his father presumed to criticise his method of holding a plough.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[illegible] TO THE OREGONIAN

EASTERN STATES

Democrats will none of Adams

ALBANY, N. Y., April [illegible].—The Argus this morning repudiates the [illegible] of Charles Francis Adams [illegible] and declares that it is the general sentiment that the Democratic party take no part in the political [illegible] where lies the future of the Republic and not with the effete sects that dwell only with the dead past.

Gathering of the Bolters

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Senators Trumbull, Fenton and Tipton, it is reported, will go to Cincinnati to-day. Private dispatches from New Orleans say that Gov. Warmoth, with about sixty five parties, white and colored, have started for Cincinnati. It is further stated that, to except a few Warmoth office holders, the entire colored voters of Louisiana are for Grant.

CINCINNATI, April 29.—The morning papers are filled with special dispatches from Cincinnati—speculations, prophesies and political gossip. The conclusions reached vary as widely as the personal predilections of the writers. The aspect of affairs change daily and almost hourly with the fresh arrivals of delegates and new movements of the leaders. As nearly as can be judged at this distance the contest will be between Adams and Davis, the former having all New England, part of New York and Pennsylvania, and a part of the South, the latter appearing to lead in all the Western delegations. There is a very general report that Trumbull has written to Horace White instructing the withdrawal of his name, but it is believed this is conditional on certain contingencies which are not publicly known.

Following are some of the various combinations at present on the tapis: Adams and Curtin, Davis and Curtin, Davis and Greeley, Adams and B. Gratz Brown. Other candidates appear to be rather on the outside at present. A delegation from California is reported arrived, but their names are not given.

The Reign of Terror

ST. LOUIS, April 29.—The reign of terror in Cass county continues. The mob of murderers have full sway and the civil authorities are powerless. The mob have murdered twelve of the most respectable citizens of Harrisonville, including the bondsmen of Cline and the minister who performed his funeral services is notified to leave town on pain of death and has obeyed. The Governor has ordered one company of the State militia at Harrisonville and several St. Louis companies have been ordered to hold themselves in readiness to go there. Full details of the murder of Stevens, Cline and Dutro show it to have been the most brutal and horrible outrage that ever occurred in the State. The Governor announces his intention to restore order in Cass county and bring the murderers to punishment.

The Sixth United States Infantry is ordered for service on the line of the Northern Pacific Railroad.

The managers of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad, in obedience to the orders of the Regulators here, have discharged all the employes on the train from which Stevenson, Cline and Dutro were taken and murdered by a mob. Several railroad officials, including R. S. Stevens, manager of the above named road, fled from Sedalia to escape threatened assassination.

No Withdrawal.

NEW YORK, April 29.—The Herald's Berlin special says that Bancroft and Davis have expressed the opinion in the presence of Bismarck and Russell that the claim for consequential damages would not be withdrawn from the American case. Bismarck volunteered the opinion that the American position is correct.

A Japanese Convert.

NEW YORK, April 29.—To-day at the Metropolitan Church Dr. Newman baptized a Japanese student named Cadima, into whose membership he had been admitted.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Don Carlos Disappeared.

MADRID, April 29.—It is stated on official authority that Don Carlos has not returned to Spain, but was at Geneva on Saturday with Alphonzo.

The Vesuvian Volcano

NAPLES, April 29.—The fresh eruption of Vesuvius are slackening. A new crater opened near Teresigna to-day. Every fresh opening decreases the violence of the eruption. The heavens this morning are darkened with dense clouds of smoke and ashes, and a strong wind carried showers of the [illegible] as far as Scafa[illegible]. The stream of lava near San Sebastiano is now sixteen feet deep. The village is still in danger. The King has gone there to direct measures for the relief of the inhabitants. The devastation has been terrible. Thousands of acres of farms and vineyards are overwhelmed with ashes and lava and buried out of sight. The loss of life has been great, but it is impossible to ascertain the extent. The view of Vesuvius is now the grandest witnessed since 1631. The Bourse is closed and business is almost entirely suspended. Showers of ashes compel the use of umbrellas. Rain is badly needed to save the crops. It is believed the worst is over, and the anxiety is considerably lessened. Troops are ordered to occupy the deserted towns to protect property from pillage.

UTAH

Court Proceedings

SALT LAKE, April 29.—In the Ashcroft habeas corpus case before Judge Hanley in Chambers, it was held that he had no authority to review the proceedings in the Third District Court. That power is not in the inferior court. The motion for relief was denied and the prisoners remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal. The Court indirectly but pointedly alluded to the illegal action of the Probate Court in liberating Brigham Young. A copy of the decision of the Supreme Court will probably be received here to-night.

SALT LAKE, April 29.—The District Court adjourned this morning in respect to the memory of J. N. Groves, a member of the bar, who died yesterday.

The organization of the Salt Lake Company is complete and the works will be ready in [illegible] next.

CALIFORNIA

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—James Malone, a porter for M. C. Hawley & Co., has sued the firm for $20,000 damages for injuries received by the breaking of the hoisting tackle in the store.

Joseph Christ de Martin was arrested on a charge of stabbing a man in the back with a stiletto, the Italian style, in Union Alley last night. This trick, if skillfully done, produce instant death, but in this case the spinal marrow was missed.

Attorney General Williams and Secretary Delano will be serenaded at the Grand Hotel to-night by the Republicans.

The Rising Star Mining Co. has levied an assessment of $ per share.

The Committee of 100 has been in executive session all the afternoon acting on the report of the Committee of Conference with the St. Louis delegation on the 35 parallel railroad project.

In the Fourth District Court to-day Judge Morrison rendered a decision in the case of Rob[illegible] vs the Western Union Telegraph Co. The plaintiff claimed $1,000 damages for injury to a fine horse caused by his death by coming in contact with the company's wire, which was being [illegible] and was hanging down upon [illegible] street. The Court gave a verdict for defendants.

The American Flat Mining Co., capital three millions, [illegible] Hill, Nevada, and Tintic Silver Mining Co., same capital, Tintic District, Utah, were incorporated to-day.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—The National Guard Co. C, 1st Regiment, goes on its sixteenth annual target excursion and picnic to Schutzen Park, Alameda county, on May 4th.

Thomas Waters, who escaped from the Insane Asylum at Stockton, was arrested here to-day.

Forty eight thousand and forty three shares of stock sold in the Board to-day, of which 19,023 were Comstock and California, and 29,020 Eastern Nevada.

[illegible] United States [illegible] shooting himself [illegible] his room [illegible] last night. He left [illegible] an open one [illegible] goodbye friends [illegible] and I die with the [illegible] I don't want Church members to try to make capital out of this. Religion is good in its way, but they can't [illegible] that the religion of the present day or any other day is Christianity.

August Friedhoffer, a native of Wurtemburg, aged 30, who had been suffering fearfully from dyspepsia for years, committed suicide near Broderick's monument at Lone Mountain to-day by shooting himself through the heart with a revolver. He lived long enough to say that his sufferings had made life miserable, and his recovery being hopeless he had determined to put an end to his existence. He was a cooper by trade and unmarried.

The serenade to Secretary Delano and Attorney General Williams is now going on at the Grand Hotel. As yet the attendance is small and no speeches have been made.

The case of Devine, under sentence of death for the murder of Kamp, will not be argued before the Supreme Court until the July term, and the execution will not take place before August or September.

Arrived—Schooner Dreadnought, Champerico, C. A., coffee.

Sixteen more Japanese students leave for the east to-morrow. Ashi, son of Iwakura, arrived here last night from the east, where he has been for several years. He is sick and will not be able to leave for Japan as intended.

It has been ascertained that two boys recently shipped here on board a vessel bound for China who are implicated in the murder and robbery of a merchant near the Arizona line, and at Cerro Gordo stole a span of horses, which they sold at San Mateo. Letters which they left behind by accident show these facts.

J. A. Poppe, of Sonoma county, leaves for Europe this week to procure supplies of fish for stocking the ponds on his ranch and commencing fish culture on a large scale.

Surveyor General Hardenburg, Secretary Delano and others have been in conference to-day on the subject of the public land surveys in California. The Secretary says he will endeavor to have the surveys pushed forward with an increased force and as fast as possible.

Stocks, contrary to the expectation of many, fully held their own to-day. Some of the eastern Nevada stocks are advancing considerably, and all closed firm.

The Board of Supervisors this evening received a message from the Mayor concerning the St. Louis railroad delegation, which was read and placed on file, and a resolution adopted welcoming to San Francisco and expressing sympathy for the object of their visit.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

LOS ANGELES, April 29.—A boy fifteen years old was run over and killed by the train on the San Pedro road yesterday.

John Holab died this morning.

The Arizona Miner of the 20th says it has been informed that the Mexicans are about to make a descent on the Gila settlement of citizens, who asked Gen. Crook for troops to protect them.

The Apaches have captured a mule train running from the Bradshaw district.

The Tiger Co. is unable to ship ore.

Gens. Howard and Crook had a long conference at Camp McDowell. Gen. Howard will visit Tucson and the southern posts in Arizona.

Passengers from Prescott report a shock of earthquake at Los Palmer station on Tuesday night lasting ten seconds. The big shocks which shook Lone Pine were not felt in Arizona.

SAN DIEGO, April 29.—Advices received from Julian City report the mines doing well in that section. One hundred and fifty tons of rock received from the Owens Mine average $60 to the ton. Their shaft is now down 200 feet, at which the line works looks better. The rock is judged to be worth $100 to the ton. Big Blue Mine worked rock averaging $42 per ton.

WATSONVILLE, April 29.—Prof. Johns, principal of the public school, while going out with a pistol in his hand to shoot a cat, accidentally exploded the pistol, shooting himself in the leg.

LOS ANGELES, April 29.—A full municipal ticket was nominated at Anaheim on Saturday. The present city officials intend holding over, claiming that the Legislative act of disincorporation is illegal.

Recent discoveries of rich gold quartz are reported to have been made near the head of San Gabriel river.

OROVILLE, April 29.—A large clean up of the Spring Valley Canal Mining Company, Cherokee Flat, came down to-day in the shape of three bars of gold valued at forty thousand dollars. They take it through to the Mint at San Francisco to-morrow.

VALLEJO, April 29.—Yesterday Thomas [illegible] simmons, fifteen years old, was thrown from a horse which kicked him in the face, mashing it [illegible] teeth.

C. Nailer was thrown from a buggy and badly bruised.

Mrs Cogan was taken to Napa yesterday to be examined touching her sanity.

The Kalama Convention

KALAMA, April 29.—Garfielde is unanimously nominated for delegate to Congress. H. G. Struve and L. B. Adams are elected delegates to the Philadelphia National Convention. Joseph M. Fletcher, of Vancouver, and C. S. Anders, of Walla Walla, are nominated for Prosecuting Attorneys.

No Liquor

How the Prohibitory liquor law works in Maine is amusingly told by the Portland [illegible] of the [illegible]. This [illegible] liquor law is rigidly [illegible] and the Sheriff has notified the dealers in Portland, and they have promptly shut down. Many amusing scenes have occurred. We quote the following:

"Fancy roast and a glass of lager," said a customer in an oyster house.

"No lager, sir."

"Well, then, make it ale."

"No ale. Sheriff notified us to-day."

"Never mind; give me a glass of cider."

"Can't do it, sir; not allowed."

"What! not allowed to sell so innocent a drink as a glass of [illegible], the honest product of the thousands of good, honest Maine farmers?"

"Them's the orders, sir, and they say it's the law."

"Well, then," said the customer coolly, "if I can't have a glass of cider, no lager nor ale with oysters, I wouldn't give a cent for them," and he stalked away with prayers for the repose of the souls of the authors of the present law.

Another says:

"Well, let them go it. I can get what rum I want at home. I shall order some from Boston to-morrow, but I don't like to take my grog in the house."

One of the most suggestive scenes occurred at one of the principal hotels. An Eastern trader arrived, washed himself, ordered a hot supper, and being weary, thought a little whisky and water would agree with his constitution.

"Can I have it?" said the clerk.

"What?"

The situation was explained.

"What time does the next train leave Portland?"

"Pullman train goes west at midnight."

"Put me down for a carriage for that train, please."

[illegible] theatres are [illegible] bottle of best brandy.

"Can't sell it to you."

"But I must have it."

"[illegible] the City Agency."

"That's closed."

"Wait till to-morrow."

"Can't do it; my little girl is terribly sick with typhoid fever, and Dr. [illegible], who is now at the house, told me she must have brandy to keep her alive."

"Go and get a prescription from your physician," replies the man of medicine, "and I will let you have it; but I am violating the law, and shall be liable to go to jail for it."

THE BRUTALITY OF THE SPANIARDS.—Of the execution of the prisoners of war there can be no question. Since the date of Valmaseda's last decree no male Cuban who surrenders is spared. The sick in the hospitals and the men who guard the camps of the women and children are alike executed. But the fate of the poor women is piteable indeed. I write of what I know, for my information is from a Spaniard who has been a participator in the brutalities. Whenever the Spaniards come upon the camp of women in the woods they kill the guards if they can catch any, toss their corpses into the huts, strip the women and throw their clothes upon the corpses, and then set fire to the huts. The Spanish troops who are now operating under Morales de los Rios and Gonzales Boet have particularly distinguished themselves by their brutality. The young women are given up to the lust of the soldiery, and very few ever reach the city. They pretend to consider women and children impediments in their march and murder them when they have served their purposes. Providence, however, would seem to punish the perpetrators of these brutal outrages. About twenty days ago a Spanish column of three hundred and fifty men encamped on a marshy spot south of Principe. Two hours after they had pitched their tents sixty men died of cholera. The camp was raised at once, but the terrible plague stuck to them, and of the whole, forty-eight only reached Santa Cruz alive.—Havana Correspondence of the New York Sun.

ADVANCE THAT BATTERY.—Mr. Goreeche, the agent of Wells, Fargo & Co. at Victoria, B. C., is the only brother of the gallant Chief of Staff of General Rosecrans, who fell at Stone river while riding at the side of his chief in the thickest of the fight. The day was going badly, for word was brought Rosecrans that the right wing was being driven in. Some one said General Sill was killed. "Never mind," said Rosecrans, "advance that battery." Then word was brought that Roberts had fallen, and the commandants of two other brigades on the right. "Can't help it," said he. "Tell that regiment to fire low—give them a blizzard in the shins." Then he turned to see the headless trunk of the faithful Gareeche topple from his horse.

"Ah, my boys, that's hardest of all. But never mind; brave men must die in battle."

"But, General," said a young aide, who was solicitous for him, "won't you better retire from this exposed place?"

"No, my boy. Make the sign of the true Cross and go and tell that brigade in the cedars to hold fast."

WHAT "ULTRAMONTANE" MEANS.—The term "ultramontane" is much used in books and newspapers, and but little understood. It is one of those words which, for representing a locality, has come to represent a religious belief and a political party. Ultramontane literally means "beyond the mountains." When used as a political term, it refers to Italy and the political and religious tenets of the Church of Rome. Ultramontanism is a belief in the unbounded supremacy of the Pope and the union of the Church with the State. Representatives of these principles in whatever nation they are found are called Ultramontanes. In Spain, in France, in Germany and in Austria the Ultramontane party has been a strong element in the direction of public affairs.

John Dudley, Engineer Portland Water Works, has been Restored to Health by DR. ABORN.

I HEREBY CERTIFY THAT I APPLIED TO DR. ABORN a few weeks since to be relieved of a vascular growth which was spreading over each eye; also the eyes were in a high state of Chronic Inflammation. I was also suffering with a Chronic Disease of the Stomach and Liver, which has been entirely Cured by DR. ABORN. The Disease of the Eyes is entirely removed, and the Vascular Growth has been so completely removed that any trace of the affection is scarcely perceptible. I look and feel better than I ever have before during my residence of five years in Portland, which is wholly due to DR. ABORN'S successful treatment. I cheerfully recommend the afflicted to apply to Dr. Aborn with entire confidence that he is skilled in his profession.

Another Cure of a Chronic Disease of the Stomach, Liver and Nervous System of Ten Years' Standing.

TO THE PUBLIC.—I feel it my duty to make the following statement of facts in my case for the benefit of those who are similarly afflicted. For ten years I have been afflicted with Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia and a Nervous Disease. My left arm was partially paralyzed and a general depression of the whole system. Restless nights; almost entirely unfit for business. Through the advice of Jackson Powell of Powell's Valley I was induced to apply to Dr. Aborn, and after two weeks treatment, I consider myself cured. In fact I feel like a new man; such wonderful change has been produced by his successful mode of treatment. I have found the Doctor kind-hearted and charitable. I reside at Sandy, across from Powell's Valley.

T[illegible]SDAY MORNING, APRIL [illegible]

Grover's Speeches

[illegible] ratical [illegible] with [illegible] stump [illegible] demagogue [illegible] Chinese question. He harangued by the hour on [illegible] Chinese [illegible] of nothing else. Our laboring classes would be rele[illegible] Chinese competition [illegible] The [illegible] must be kept back from our shores. This was the [illegible] issue. All other questions [illegible] moment. And in his address to the Legislature the Governor followed up the line of his stump speeches. He devoted five pages to the Chinese question to one page on all other subjects—an intolerable deal of sack to one poor pennyworth of bread.

And now the Governor is on his travels again. By his present course he seems to be anxious to let people know how insincere he was when he last appeared before them. The phases of the so called "Chinese question" have not changed at all since he spoke last; there is still the same "danger" that the country will be overrun with Chinese that existed then, and no more. But Grover now says not one word on the subject on which he was so voluble when he spoke last. He has forgotten the Chinaman. He has no apprehensions lest the noble white labor of the country may be worsted in an unequal encounter. He leaves the white laborer to his fate. Withdrawing his support he abandons white labor to Chinese competition and sheds no tears over the situation. But a short time ago plaintive words interwoven with sighs found their way out of his mouth and he spoke with bitterness of the unfeeling nature of "Radicalism" which gave the white man no sympathy in his frightful competition with the "rice-eating hordes of Asia." Grover, the demagogue, was then seeking an election.

That these harangues were loaded with the shams and absurdities of a demagogue all sensible people knew. We told Mr Grover that this was their real character and that there was nothing whatever in the great "issue" which he was trying to present. And now Governor Grover by abandoning it admits that our criticism was right and confesses that he was simply playing the part of a demagogue, as a temporary expedient and for a temporary purpose.

But it is not to be supposed that he has reformed altogether. He has not quit his favorite field of shams and humbugs. He is still laboring in it. The form, not the substance is changed. His speeches are the same old material, wrought into a new style of shoddy cloth. Demagogy has quit the Chinaman only to go into congenial business in a different direction. Governor Grover now talks by the hour on such subjects as the Herald was discussing in its leading articles two or three weeks ago, but which even that paper has become ashamed of and abandoned. He talks of railroads, locks and monopolies, thinks it was a good thing to giveaway (needlessly) seventy-five thousand dollars because a Democratic Legislature gave it, and it will never do to question anything which such a Legislature may do and which such an Executive as himself may approve, is of opinion that it is all right for the State to furnish the money to build the locks and then pay the company for passing freight through, and is convinced that the Legislature must regulate the rates of transportation on the railroads even though the Constitution and laws are expressly against it. And here is where he tries to persuade the people that the "great issues" are.

These changeful devices, fabricated for the emergencies of successive campaigns, are simply the shifts and clap-traps of a party which is as scarce of principles as Falstaff's company was of shirts, and which accepts as the "vital issue" of a canvass any humbug proposition that chance throws to the surface of politics. Governor Grover is the same demagogue now that he was in the last campaign when he was harping on the Chinaman and uttering expressions of lachrymose grief over the sad condition of the laboring white man.

'Indirect' Damages Again

Dr Woolsey, ex-President of Yale College, and a recognized authority on international law, publishes an article in the New York Independent on the proper construction of the Washington Treaty, in which he takes strong ground against the doctrine of indirect or consequential damages. He considers the doctrine untenable, and is of opinion that it cannot be established by any fair construction of the treaty. On the other hand it appears that many whose authority is entitled to respect deem the doctrine of indirect damages sound and tenable and it is declared that Bismarck, among others, holds this opinion. How far the doctrine is to extend in this case does not appear to be precisely defined, though we have not yet received the full text of the American "case" and "counter case." Doubtless very many will agree that the money spent by the United States in hunting down the Anglo-rebel cruisers should be refunded, and indemnity secured to some extent for enhanced rates of insurance and the transfer of a large part of the American commercial marine to the British flag. But as President Woolsey says, any such indefinite claim as that for damages resulting from "prolongation of the war," or for the addition of a large sum to the cost of the war and the suppression of the rebellion would be out of the question and no one need expect Great Britain to accede to it. The whole subject is still in a nebulous state and a good deal of diplomatic writing will yet be required to clear it of its redundancies and obscurities. What we want, as Dr Woolsey well says, is a settlement of the principles involved. The money is nothing. No one has ever expected that much would come into the national treasury from this source.

Gen John A Dix and a large number of other influential persons whose names were used at the anti Grant meeting at New York as if the gentlemen to whom they belonged supported the movement distinctly repudiate all connection with it. Many of these gentlemen were named as Vice Presidents of the meeting. They were not present and disclaim all sympathy with it.

The New York Tribune, which of late hasn't had many good words for anything or anybody connected with the National Administration, nevertheless speaks of Judge Williams as the President's "very competent and clear headed Attorney General."

At the age of [illegible] he came a [illegible] and [illegible] the German contingent [illegible] with the Emperor Napoleon in the Russian campaign of 1812. He was present at the terrible battle of [illegible] Moscow [illegible] Napoleon [illegible] years later he fought in the [illegible] battle of Waterloo. He was seven times wounded. Though seventy years [illegible] his step is elastic [illegible] men who are younger by thirty years. His memory of the scenes through which he has passed in his youth is still perfect. He first saw the great Napoleon and though he remembers with indignation the wrongs which the conqueror heaped upon Germany, yet he regards Napoleon as the most extraordinary of men for abilities of every kind. Mr Keil does not speak English but converses with great ease and fluency in German. Think of a man yet living who as a soldier fought at Borodino, saw Moscow burn and was in the final struggle at Waterloo.

It has been ascertained that the investigations maliciously set on foot to break down Grant have cost the country more than the aggregate of loss sustained by it through the dishonesty of subordinate officers since the present Administration came into power. These costly investigations have in every case failed to impeach Grant's integrity. Mischief makers and factionists often cost the country something even though they call themselves [illegible] Reformers.

The Argus says: "The cargo of the bark [illegible] on her last trip but one from Port Townsend was of piles which were subjected to a preserving process at San Francisco and then shipped to Wilmington, Delaware, for the Government breakwater. The wood that grew in the balmy air of the Pacific will serve to check the stormy waters of the Atlantic."

The Puget Sound [illegible] boasts of what should be regretted by the people of Oregon and that is the fact that large amounts of vegetables, especially potatoes, are shipped from the Sound to Portland. It says: "Another 2,000 bushels of potatoes on Crawford & Harrington's wharf to go by the California to Portland. So it commences. In a few years we will be able to supply the whole of Oregon with farm produce."

The Port Townsend Argus goes after the Victoria tugboats on this wise: "The Victoria papers complain that American tug boats go into British waters and tow ships. They only tow American ships that go into British waters for cargoes. When the enterprising 'Provincials' put tug boats on their waters capable of safely towing a decent sized washtub it will be time for their papers to find fault with vessels which seek tugs on this side."

San Francisco the Queen City of the Occident and then Antioch the Queen City of the Orient, have taken their turns at the metropolitan ague. Altogether there seems to be less motion amidship than elsewhere and we are glad we are here instead of off at the uttermost ends of the earth."

Antioch, which was destroyed by an earthquake on the 3d of April 1872, has been demolished by the same cause five times before, the last time in 1827, and from which it had never recovered its former proportions. Before the shock just occurring, the population of the place was about 6,000, one fourth of whom were buried in the ruins. Antioch, which was once away down in the past the most beautiful and magnificent of the sixteen cities rejoicing in the same name, built in honor of the name of Antiochus 300 years before Christ by Seleucus Nicator, a dutiful and admiring son of the eminent Syrian King.

The Red Bluff Sentinel of April 20th says Major Cadwalader, Superintendent of the Oregon branch of the Central Pacific Railroad, informs us that there are now over 1,000 men at work between here and Cottonwood. A full quota of track layers are laying track between here and Blue Tent Creek. All the boarding and sleeping cars belonging to the construction department were ordered to the front yesterday. The Hooker Creek cut will be completed inside of two weeks. From Hooker Creek cut to Cottonwood the grading is very light. Cadwalader thinks the track layer will hardly overtake the graders before they reach the Canyon House near Shasta after the Hooker Creek cut is passed.

Siletz Indian Agency

From the Statesman

This Agency is now in charge of General Joel Palmer and under the discipline of the Methodist Church. The Indians on the Reservation number about seven hundred and are all peaceably disposed toward the whites, although they occasionally have a little fracas among themselves. They manage to raise most of their own food, such as it is, but as a general thing it is not much sought after by the whites. Fish abound in great quantities and furnish them with meat. They raise considerable grain, oats especially. Wheat does not flourish well on the grounds now under cultivation, but certain portions of the thousands of acres on the Reservation can be made productive for this grain. In regard to educational advantages they have been rather limited heretofore, consisting only of such opportunities as were given them in the Sunday school and such teachings as they might receive from the white employes, who are all engaged on certain days in the week to render this assistance. But arrangements are now completed by which a permanent school will be started about the middle of next month. It is to be under the supervision of Miss Woodworth, formerly a student of the University of this city. There are some ten or twelve white families residing on the Reservation, all in the employ of the Government. Mr Chapman recently endeavored to teach the Indians the game of base ball but they couldn't see the fun in it and abandoned it for their long established game of "cobo." Some thirty or forty of them will choose sides, and forming in two lines a short distance apart, with clubs formed like our "shinny clubs" will endeavor to knock a ball about the size of one of our base balls over the line of their opponents, which when done wins the game. Shell-fish are abundant at all times. This is a splendid place for trout fishing, and should any of our citizens wish to take a summer excursion they will be well entertained at Siletz. Mr Chapman is engaged in business connected with the Agency and will return in a few days. It is gratifying to hear such a good report from this section of our State. All under Mr Palmer's employ, as well as the Indians in his charge, speak very highly of him and the affairs of the Reservation were never in a more prosperous condition.

Making Senators

The following paragraphs are from a very judicious and considerate article in the Yamhill paper, the [illegible]:

The great mass of the Republican party favor no one man above another any further than he may be thought likely to subserve the interests of the people. They say let us elect a Republican Legislature of good men, men whom we know to be reliable, active, intelligent and patriotic men, to whom we can confide the choice of a United States Senator with the same security that we can the making an amendment of our laws. Then let these men select to the best of their ability the one whom they may think will be the most useful to our State, but let us hear no more of Corbett men or Williams men or Mitchell men or Boise men, for we want none of them in the Legislature. We want good trustworthy, straightforward Republicans whom we can trust to do the right in all cases and then we can be satisfied with any election they may make.

No doubt each of the gentlemen named have friends who think he would be the very best selection that could be made, but if there is a man among the admirers of any Senatorial candidate who would lessen the Republican party by one vote to weaken the chances of a rival, that man is at heart a traitor to the party and only lacks opportunity to betray all that he calls principles. If we are to spend our time in wrangling over the respective merits of this or that man the result will be that L F Grover or some still more incompetent person will obtain a seat in the Senate Chamber of the United States.

The [illegible] Senator W[illegible] in [illegible] speech made in Connecticut on Saturday said that the week before General Grant [illegible] at the White House that he had [illegible] expressed a wish to any human being to be renominated and should never lift his finger to accomplish that result. More than anything else he desired the continuance of the Republican party in power as he believed it essential to the security and prosperity of the country, and so far as one in his position properly could he would do all in his power to assist in the election of the nominee of the convention whoever it might be. This is the language of a patriot and of a true Republican, and we have no doubt the President is correctly reported. The statement [illegible] with confusion [illegible] shows [illegible] of the charge that General Grant is making a [illegible] personal [illegible] Sumner [illegible] representative [illegible] It would [illegible] for the Massachusetts Senator [illegible] [illegible] country.

[illegible] young [illegible] leaving the theater with friends [illegible] his opinion that the trick [illegible] was as easy as the drinking of a tumblerful of water. [illegible] and his friends went as usual to a restaurant to get supper, and after having eaten for an hour the conversation fell again on the Chinese [illegible] [illegible] took up his fork [illegible] put it in his mouth down to his [illegible] at when the fork slipped from his hand. His friends got terribly frightened, attempted to pull it out again, but all was in vain. The young man was immediately carried to the hospital of Santa Maria and there he still lies and eats and drinks with his fork in his stomach. The crowd before the hospital has been so great that police officers have been stationed at the different doors to prevent the people from going into the hospital. Such an extraordinary case has naturally excited great interest in the medical class.

It will never do to inquire too particularly into the characters of the men who offer to follow Greeley and Trumbull to Cincinnati. Everybody surely could see that [illegible] with out the [illegible] taking the trouble to write a column and a half about it. Says that paper: "We may perhaps be permitted to say without offense to anybody that this raking into the past record of public men willing to join the great movement for reform, is not in all respects quite wise." And then it bursts into italics in its womanish way and adds: "The new movement cannot be successful at all upon any [illegible] different [illegible]." That's it precisely. If a rebel comes to you boasting that he has "accepted nothing," you must take him by the hand and walk off to Cincinnati with him as your friend and brother. Treat him as Greeley treated Jeff Davis last year, give him a cordial greeting and assist in carrying out his views. That may ruin the securities of the country, national and local, and place all property in jeopardy, but what of it?—New York Times.

PLANTATION BITTERS!

S. T.—1860—X.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

TUESDAY MORNING APRIL [illegible]

CITY.

[illegible] Bruce [illegible] contract [illegible] He was taken up insensible and up to [illegible] o'clock last evening remained unconscious. His injuries are pronounced to be of an internal character and recovery quite doubtful. The unfortunate man is a resident of [illegible] is aged about forty years has a family and is steady and industrious. He lives in the Thompson House.

CONTRACT [illegible].—Proposals were received at the office of Mr Barton on last Saturday for the contract of the building of the County Poor House and the construction of a suitable stone wall to surround the block on which the Court House is situated. For the erection of the Poor House the contract was let to Messrs Manom & Nelson of this city. The building is to be [illegible] by 60 feet two stories high, to be constructed of wood. The contract was awarded them for $2 800. John Gruber was awarded the contract for furnishing the cut stone of which the wall is to be built around the Court House block. The contract was let for $1 [illegible]. As yet the contract for building the wall has not been let to any party but probably will to day.

A FINE YACHT.—At the residence of W P Burk, we observed a fine yacht built by that gentleman. It is beyond question the finest sail craft ever constructed in the State. It is 36 feet long, 11 feet and 10 inches wide with a depth of hold of four feet. This craft will be sloop rigged. A neat cabin is being constructed and the hull is receiving the finishing coat of paint. It will be ready for launching about the first of June. Mr Burk informs us that this season he will make a voyage to San Francisco in his yacht and spend the next national birthday at that city. We should prefer to make a trip of this magnitude in a more extensive sea traveler.

FOR VICTORIA.—On Saturday last the theatrical season closed at Oro Fino Theater and will in all probability not reopen for some time to come. The intention of Manager Waldron is to take his troupe to Victoria and play a short season there and returning overland perform along the Sound ports. The troupe will depart to-morrow evening on the California. Mr Waldron has been very well sustained here during the last two seasons. This public will unite in wishing him and his excellent troupe success wherever they may go and a safe and speedy return to our city. Theater supporters will feel keenly the dearth of amusements which the absence of the troupe will occasion.

AN UNSCRUPULOUS THIEF.—A fellow who did not register his name called at the [illegible] House on Sunday evening and paid in advance for his supper and night's lodging. He ate his supper and retired to bed. The next morning the landlord espied his lodger coming cautiously down stairs with a roll of blankets under his arm. The host knew that something was wrong as he had nothing when he came. He was on the eve of accosting the fellow when the latter saw he was discovered dropped the bundle and fled precipitately through the hall and down the back way. A spirited chase followed but the would be thief effected his escape.

PROPERLY HALTED.—Charles Taylor for driving rapidly through the streets yesterday was [illegible] and fined by Judge Denny $10. This is a favorable indication that those who violate the provisions of the ordinance will be properly punished. As a general thing drivers are too reckless as to the speed and manner of driving. There is an ordinance in the city charter which expressly prohibits driving faster than six miles an hour. Like any other wise and wholesome regulation [illegible] ing the public safety and welfare, it ought to be enforced to the letter.

[illegible] A V.—They say that at Washington City there is a certain class of men who gain a livelihood by writing buncombe speeches for the [illegible] of Congress who are too indolent or too ignorant to write their own speeches but we have heard that these writers always charge a good round price for their work. Now we wonder what effect the small sum of five dollars slipped in the hand of the Herald's [illegible] reporter had on the report of Grover's speech as it appeared in the columns of that paper last Sunday morning?

THE NEW WHARF.—The new wharf of the O S N Co when completed will be 110 feet long and 40 feet wide. It will be constructed strong and firmly braced throughout and covered with a truss roof. A very substantial improvement. Another portion of the wharf will be built much lower than the portion enclosed, the [illegible] extending nearly down to the Willamette Transportation Company's wharf. This will be left uncovered and will accommodate boats at the lowest stages of water.

JOHN L STEPHENS.—This fine first class steamship has been on the ways at San Francisco for a number of months past undergoing thorough repairs. So complete has been the overhauling that she has been almost rebuilt and is perhaps as staunch a vessel as there is on the coast. We learn that the St[illegible] will sail from San Francisco for Portland on Saturday next with freight and passengers.

PHOTOGRAPHIC VIEW.—We were shown yesterday a handsome photographic view taken of the procession of Odd Fellows on last Friday with their banners emblems regalias, &c. The view extends from Washington street at its intersection with First, nearly to Oak and shows the buildings on each side in a manner that would render them recognizable at a glance. The view was taken by Jos Buchtel.

[illegible].—A reference to the marriage records of the county yesterday convinced us that a marriage alliance is imminent between a well known [illegible] and actress of this city. We have not the [illegible] in making this announcement but [illegible] to illustrate the fact that there is always [illegible] reason and that annexation should be [illegible] a good thing. One by one the roses fall.

PERSONAL.—Geo P Riley the celebrated colored orator is among the passengers by the steamer Ajax. Mr Riley [illegible] this city about a year ago to reside permanently in some of the Eastern States, but it appears that he has found no place as desirable to live in as Oregon.

[illegible] ACTIVITY.—Within the last few weeks there has been an increased activity in the [illegible] farming lands. The weather has proven very unfavorable to the [illegible] demands of the market but that obstacle is confidently expected to be removed before long.

COURTS.—County Commissioners Court will meet at the Court House on next Monday.

United States District Court will convene this morning at 10 o'clock.

United States Circuit Court will meet next Monday May 6th.

INCREASE OF TRAVEL.—There has been a marked increase of travel on the west side road in the last two weeks. After to-morrow trains will receive and discharge freight and passengers opposite the new hotel of Mr Ha[illegible]s.

DELEGATES.—Twenty delegates [illegible] the Territorial Convention at [illegible] were [illegible] down to the mouth of the Willamette yesterday and passed on board the D[illegible]

[illegible] FEAST.—The Turn[illegible] will hold their feast on the [illegible]. Considerable preparations [illegible] and a joyous time is anticipated.

ADMITTED.—David Lave [illegible] and Thomas Sherlock [illegible] admitted to full citizenship by Judge Deady [illegible] yesterday.

EXCURSION.—The Methodist Sunday School of Vancouver will hold a picnic to-morrow [illegible] the weather not prove unpropitious.

CHANGED.—The steam propeller [illegible] will on Thursday evening at 5 o'clock instead of Wednesday.

Hon J C Cartwright ex United States District Attorney is in the city.

Hon T B Odeneal Superintendent of Indian Affairs gave us a call yesterday.

A new county exchange says the katy dids have commenced their serenading.

The property of delinquent tax payers will be advertised by Sheriff [illegible] the 1 th of May.

The foundation of the new St Joseph's Hospital at Vancouver was commenced yesterday.

Mails from the Eastern States now arrive with regularity. There need be no more grumbling.

Scaffolding is being erected around Dekum's building preparatory to applying a coat of cement.

There is a great deal of bustle about the various millinery and dressmakers shops in Portland.

The [illegible] arrived here yesterday morning after pulling out 68 piles at Astoria by order of the Town Council.

That young man who took out of the Library a copy of the Bible under the impression that it was one of James' novels is a myth.

John Alexander the brother of the missing man is now in the city to aid in tracing out the mystery of his brother's disappearance.

The newest style of bouquet for a bride to carry on her wedding day is very small and round composed of bud and small flowers.

One of the carriage wheels was badly smashed in the jam of vehicles which occurred in East Portland on Sunday last in the funeral procession.

The old building on the southwest corner of Washington and Second streets will be torn down this week and a much finer one will be built on its site.

The Park block lying between Washington and Alder streets has been divided into building lots and work on one residence is now pretty well advanced.

The Pacific Club defeated the Athletic Club on Saturday by five runs. Our base ball reporter being absent the usual summary of athletic sports are necessarily omitted.

Dolly Vardens are served up to drinking saloons. The gentlemanly bar keeper does them up so neatly that when a number are well shaken and taken they enable the party indulging to cut a pretty figure.

An effort has been made to clean that portion of Stark street between First and Second. It needs a thorough overhauling and those traveling that way will breathe with more freedom when the work is finished.

A canine epidemic has visited the dogs of Vancouver. Or rather some one has been poisoning very extensively. Within the last week over a dozen dogs have handed in their checks. The citizens are greatly exasperated as some very valuable animals have died. A reward of $100 has been offered for the destroyer. Should he be found he will be roughly handled.

MEMORIAL DAY G A R

This Order has made arrangements for the celebration of Memorial Day the 30th of May by appropriate ceremonies at the Court House in this city. All honorably discharged soldiers sailors and mariners and all friends of the soldiers are cordially invited to attend.

The ladies are invited to contribute flowers for the occasion. The committee will receive any contribution at their hall at any time before the procession moves. Those who desire to join in the procession are requested to assemble at the hall of Lader Post No 1 corner First and Madison at 1 P M on that day.

AMUSEMENTS

COMPLIMENTARY BALL.—By his many pupils of Portland and Oregon City a grand complimentary ball will be tendered to Prof Cardinell at Armory Hall this evening. Following are the committees: Committee of Arrangements—J Power G C Rider J Hill. Floor Managers—J B Kellogg J Hill R Schmeer E Randall, Schmeer S Beck L Rankin. Good music has been expressly provided for the occasion. Tickets two dollars.

ON THE SHOULDER.—Two women who had not the fear of M P's before their eyes yesterday afternoon began a quarrel on the corner of Taylor and Third streets. At the start the words came in a slightly argumentative turn, then grew into disputations then denunciatory, and at last violently combative. But about this time one of them who thought the other had the best of her in words undertook to get even by pitching into her adversary in a regular pugilistic style and the hair pins laces ribbons and chignons flew in all directions. Happily the scalps of the two [illegible] they seemed pretty [illegible] when an officer came upon them and effected a separation and Judge Denny will interview them in the Police Court to-day.

ONE OF THE GEMS.—One of the genuine Dolly Varden hats of which so much has been written can be seen at the postoffice. It is claimed to be one of the original patterns of this truly marvelous style so neat and graceful. After a most scrutinizing inspection of the hat in question we were unable to decide whether it was a badly smashed old fruit basket with a few ribbons attached or some nondescript hat of the [illegible] persuasion. The opinion of experts in this matter is respectfully craved.

AN AIR LINE.—Last week two mathematically inclined gentlemen of East Portland measured the distance to Mount Hood on an air line. We have not been able to procure the exact distance in figures but will do so at the earliest opportunity.

Protection is True Economy.

[From the Pittsburg Gazette.

There is no assertion more frequently or more confidently made by the opponents of the policy of protection than that every cent of duty assessed upon any foreign commodity adds a cent to the price which the American consumer has to pay for it. In their arguments this is assumed as axiomatic, a thing not to be disputed.

On articles which are not and can not be grown or made in this country, such as tea, coffee and all exclusively tropical productions, the duty assessed does add just so much to the price, but on all articles on the production of which American labor and skill are brought into direct competition with the skill and labor of foreign artisans and manufacturers the rule does not hold. In that case the foreigner is obliged to come down in his prices until he is able to meet his American competitor in the American markets. In other words he is obliged to pay the duty out of his profits. He meets it, and not the American consumer.

In most manufactures, such as iron, steel, woven fabrics, &c., the manufacturers of Europe would to this day have had very little American competition to meet, had not the Government thrown the shield of protection over our infant manufactures, by the imposition of customs designed to afford that protection. In this policy our Government followed the example of Great Britain in a measure; although with us it has been fitfully and variably adhered to, while England held to it through a period of one hundred and sixty-nine years. At first the duties on many things were absolutely prohibitory; and under this strong, unvarying governmental protection the immense system of British manufactures grew up, gaining year by year more and more mechanical perfection, more and more capital, and meeting no competition but what grew up at home, which was wholesome, as it stimulated ingenuity and called forth the utmost skill of the most gifted minds. During all this time prices were running down through the mere force of home competition, until at length—about thirty years ago—Great Britain was able to cast aside her protective policy and challenge the world to free trade.

Great Britain is ready for free trade, we are not yet. Very likely this country may be ready after a while. It will not take as long to build up a grand manufacturing system here as it required in England; and home competition, together with more abundant capital, will, by and by, render protection by tariffs unnecessary; and then prices will be lower than we have ever know them.

But to show the fallacy of the notion that high tariffs lead inevitably to high prices, we shall mention a single fact. While the tariff on steel was at its lowest rates, to wit., twelve per cent. ad valorem, which on the custom house valuation amounted to less than one cent and a quarter per pound, one of the English steel manufacturers, largely engaged in that branch of business in Sheffield, sent out to this country over four hundred tons of the larger sized circular saw plates, for which he charged and received from our saw manufacturers, and which our lumbermen ultimately paid, an average price equal to forty-eight cents per pound. When Congress fixed a tariff of three and a half cents per pound upon the same kind of saw plates, capitalists were induced to embark in the manufacture of steel on a large scale in this country. The result was that the competition brought about carried the price of these large saw plates down to twenty cents per pound.

Now, according to the doctrines of the free traders, the imposition of a duty of 3½ instead of 1¼ cents per pound ought to have raised the price of saws at least two cents per pound, or to fifty cents instead of forty-eight, which was the free trade price. We know that men in trade are apt to take all they can get; and hence that English manufacturer put into his pocket a profit of something like thirty cents per pound as long as he met with no American competition. And very likely the American manufacturers of big cast steel circular saw plates would have been well pleased to have got fifty cents per pound for them; but we see that competition among themselves would not permit such exorbitant profits to be made. In this single instance we have an example of the potency of home competition.

Now here was an English house sending to this country over 400 tons of saw plates, upon which it charged our consumers a profit of $560 per ton beyond what they can now be purchased for, both there and here, making in the aggregate $224,000 per annum, and paid into our national treasury, in duty, just $1,000, or 25 per ton. Now, under the American competition which that tariff created, that house is obliged to pay $70 per ton into our national treasury, if it sells saw plates here at all; and, in addition to this, those of our people who have to pay for these plates save $560 per ton upon them, $224,000 in all upon that single article.

Had it not been for that duty of 3½ cents per pound upon cast steel, that great branch of domestic industry could not have been established here at all; and our people would have been still paying to manufacturers abroad such profits as those above mentioned. The single fact we have mentioned illustrates as no more theoretical figuring can, the value of domestic competition, and is proof positive that a protective tariff does not enhance prices, but the contrary, and that protective duties are not paid by the consumers but the foreign producers of the articles taxed. And because this is so, foreign manufacturers pay—and can afford to pay—large sums for the dissemination of free trade doctrines among our people, and perhaps to subsidize presses.

We have selected one single fact, which covers the whole ground, and which explodes the huge bubbles of delusive generalities put forth by the advocates of free trade. Let the student of these questions never lose sight of the difference between the effect of custom duties upon articles which we can not produce.

Congressional Repartee.

[From the Ohio State Journal.]

Ben Butler is no fool, if he does have a cock-eye. He has kept reasonably quiet during the present session of Congress, and we may look for him to let on steam before a great while, in consequence of his singular serenity so far.

Benjamin puts in a good shot occasionally. The other day Beck, of Kentucky, was on the floor, talking on the army appropriation bill, and making an ass of himself, as he has always done since he told the country a while back, when answering Brownlow, that "no man should strike him (Beck) and live," and that his "children are the great grand-children of George Washington's brother," etc., ad nauseam.

On this occasion Beck took occasion to say that he rather suspected that Butler had been induced for money to remain loyal to his country during the late war. He didn't know what had kept him loyal, but rather thought it was money. Then up spake Bejamin: "I will tell the gentleman what it cost to make me loyal—it was the first gun fired on the American flag at Fort Sumter. Then, without counting the cost, I took the field. I wish that I had met the gentleman from Kentucky there, side by side with me, or—I would have been equally well pleased if he had been on the other side!"

The valiant Beck resumed his seat.

In the course of the same debate General John Coburn of Indianapolis administered a scathing rebuke to Whitthorne of Tennessee. Coburn is a natty, soldierly little fellow, a blonde as to complexion and beard, but, in manner and general appearance otherwise, a type of General Walcott. Whitthorne was a Colonel in the rebel army, and is a pretty good fellow, but don't know when to keep still. When the debate had progressed somewhat Whitthorne pulled off his shirt collar, loosened his collar-band, opened his pores that his perspiration might not be impeded, and sailed in. He roared over the large amount of the Army Appropriation bill—then he wept over it, and then he raved over it—all in the most patriotic manner possible. To which General Coburn quietly replied that he would as soon expect to hear an incendiary who had burned his house lecture him upon his expenditure in rebuilding, or to have a man who had tried to assassinate him reprove him because of the amount of doctor's bills, as to hear from the gentleman from Tennessee a lecture upon the extravagance of the Government in this connection. Whereupon the gentle Whitthorne sat down.

Now, in the good old times, you know, when gentlemen run this thing, the fiery Southron being thus addressed by a Yankee would have rent his garments, sent a challenge by his friends, and had Butler and Coburn out at Bladensburg by daybreak next day for the purpose of fighting a duel, as all high-toned gentlemen did in those times which we all lament so much. But the Yankee having formed a disagreeable habit of honoring such challenges promptly and unexpectedly, the fiery Southron is fain to curb his too impetuous valor, you observe.

Mazzini's Body to be Petrified.—Mazzini, eccentric in life, is the same in death, for his body has been turned over to a learned professor, who guarantees to petrify it perfectly in eight months. "Professor Morini," says the Paris Liberté, "whom we have personally known, and whose science equals his modesty, enjoys a great reputation in this department. He possesses a museum of bodies, which we have often visited and examined with wonder and delight. Certain mummifying preparations give to the body the strange property of assuming all the appearances of sleep, after being in water some hours. Others give to the body a hardness of stone, and enable them to resist humidity and changes of weather. We recall the head of a case of Dr. Morini, composed of a human eye, perfectly preserved, and of a hardness resembling crystal or coralline; also many heads petrified, which, after thirty years, look as natural as life. The body of Mazzini, in the hands of this skillful operator, will escape dissolution, and preserve the sublime expression of the last moment." If everybody could be thus preserved, the earth would soon be full—nay, encumbered with the dead—and then what would the living do for room?

A Puzzle.—Many have endeavored to solve the following puzzle, but have found it quite difficult. It is easy enough, however, when it is explained. The possessive case does the work. A princess found a prophet in the rushes by the water, whom she hoped to call her darling son. If Moses had been the son of Pharaoh's daughter, then he would have been the daughter of Pharaoh's son.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

MONDAY EVENING, April 29, 1872.

Gold in New York, 111⅝.

Portland legal tender rates, 90c buying and 91c selling.

The H. W. Almy will be ready to sail to-morrow with a full cargo.

The Falkinburg will not complete discharging cargo before Wednesday. She will load with lumber at some point down the river.

Bark Webfoot and brig Orient are discharging at railroad wharf.

The Telfair will sail on Wednesday and the California on Thursday, both for the North.

Bark Melancthon is discharging the locomotive Yamhill at the West Side depot.

In the produce market there are few transactions to note, and prices of all descriptions are unchanged.

The Ajax from San Francisco may be looked for by Wednesday morning.

The John L. Stephens having been entirely rebuilt, will sail for this port on Saturday next from San Francisco. She is now pronounced by experts who have examined her to be the staunchest vessel afloat.

An important movement is on foot in San Francisco looking to the renewal of shipments of Flour by rail and steamer to New York. Best brands in New York now command $10 50 per barrel. Freight is about $2 50 per barrel, which would leave a fair margin. It is understood that considerable invoices of the best Oregon brands would be sent forward.

San Francisco papers of April 24th say that the managers of the Central Pacific Railroad Company are understood to be making efforts to control the Pacific mail steamers, both on the line to China and to New York. In other words, that a combination has been entered into to increase fares and freights. That some arrangement of this kind has been made, is believed in New York as well as San Francisco, and that discriminations are conceded on freights in favor of each company, appears quite as certain.

The gross earnings of the principal railroads of the United States for March amounted to $5,524,000, an increase of $715,000 over the same month last year, while for the first three months of the year the amount was $14,374,000, a gain of $2,155,000 as against the same time last year.

We have news by mail of the new tariff bill which has been finished by the House Committee of Ways and Means. The amount by which the tariff will be reduced, on the basis of last year's receipts, will be as follows:

Tea	$2,348,539
Coal	322,881
Leather	629,254
Coffee	2,949,309
Salt	615,522
Iron and manufactures of	3,136,233

Lumber	761,801
All other articles	212
Free list	1,584,667
Total	$18,952,438
Tobacco	$6,750,000
Gas	2,573,124
Bank checks	1,250,000
Matches	2,250,000
Agreement stamps, estimated	100,000
	$12,893,761
Grand total	$31,592,123

Estimated reduction on duty received in 1871:

Tea	$3,126,716
Coffee	6,770,450

In addition to these reductions the Committee has endeavored to throw safeguards around the Administration of our Custom Houses, and has greatly simplified the laws pertaining to the internal revenue. It has consolidated into an equivalent tax of sixty-five cents nearly all of the several taxes upon whisky. It has removed many of the annoying and restrictive provisions of the existing law, obstructing the business of the distiller and harrassing the commerce in that article. It has provided instead of sixteen cents for smoking tobacco and thirty-two cents for chewing tobacco, a uniform tax of twenty cents per pound upon all kinds of tobacco, and has at the same time provided a safe method for exporting tobacco as well as spirits directly from the manufactory without the cumbersome forms and unsatisfactory drawbacks of the existing law, and it has been its endeavor, while reducing taxation, to make more efficient, and if possible, at the same time, less burdensome and annoying, the laws that shall enforce the duties and taxes which remain.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED AT THE STATE CONVENTION HELD AT PORTLAND, MARCH 27, 1872.

The Union Republican party of Oregon, in Convention, makes the declaration of its principles and policy:

1. To the Constitution of the United States and all its authority we pledge our unfaltering allegiance to the authority a willing obedience, to its full and legal construction and enforcement our constant support.

2. That the success of the present National Administration in reducing the public debt, diminishing and equalizing taxation, administering with honesty the public affairs with economy and efficiency, founding and improving the civil service, enforcing the laws without fear or favor, protecting the nation's wards with paternal care against the cruel arts of speculation and fraud, and maintaining friendly relations with Foreign Powers, has been such as to command the approbation of the great majority of the American people, and justly entitle it to the confidence and commendation of every true Republican.

3. We regard the payment of our national debt, in full compliance with all legal obligations to all our creditors everywhere, and in accordance with the true letter and spirit of its contracting, as no longer a question in issue, but that we may be clearly understood, we denounce all forms and degrees of repudiation of that debt, as affirmed by the Democratic party and its sympathizers, as not only national calamities, but positive crimes, and we will never consent to a suspicion of lack of honor or justice in its complete satisfaction.

4. We admit of no distinctions between citizens, whether of native or foreign birth; and therefore we favor the granting of full amnesty to the people of those States lately in rebellion; and we here pledge the full and effective protection of our civil laws to all persons voluntarily coming to or residing in our land.

5. We favor the encouragement of railroads by the General Government of the United States, and hold that such disposition should be made of the public lands as shall secure the same to actual settlers only, in quantities not exceeding 160 acres.

6. That while we are in favor of a revenue for the support of the General Government, by duties upon imports, sound policy requires such adjustment of those duties on imports as to encourage the development of the industrial interest of the whole country, and we recommend that policy of national exchange which secures to the working men liberal wages; to agriculture remunerative prices; to mechanics and manufacturers an adequate reward for their skill, labor and enterprise, and to the Nation commercial prosperity and independence.

7. We believe that popular education is the sole true basis and hope of a free government, and shall ever oppose any diversion of, or interference with the common school funds or lands in this State for any other than their legitimate purpose, and we condemn the act of favoritism by the last Legislature whereby [illegible] hundred thousand dollars, taken from the school fund, were granted to a corporation consisting mainly of Democratic leaders and party favorites, for the construction of a work which another corporation, entirely sound and responsible, offered to construct for seventy-five thousand dollars less, and that we are in favor of the passage by the Legislature of an efficient school law, and as shall secure to all citizens of our State a good common school education.

8. We find no terms sufficiently strong to express our disapproval of those acts of the late Legislature whereby the swamp lands belonging to the State have been taken from the needy settlers, and given without limit or price or competition in price to the land [illegible]; whereby the emoluments and salaries of State officers have been unconstitutionally increased, and the taxes increased thousands of dollars by the creation of new and unnecessary offices and salaries, for the purpose of providing for party favorites; and whereby the citizens of our most populous county have been deprived of and denied the right of controlling their own local authority. And we equally condemn the administration of our State officers and laws as extravagant, reckless, illegal and destructive, and we rightfully charge all those results as the acts of the Democratic party.

9. We are in favor of the United States giving to each honorably discharged soldier who served in the armies of the United States to put down the rebellion a warrant for a homestead of 160 acres of public lands.

10. That we demand the repeal of the so-called [illegible], which was devised to support pauper Democratic newspapers at the public expense.

11. That the Republican party of this State are in favor of the General Government extending aid toward building a railroad from Portland, Oregon, to Salt Lake City, and from Jackson county to Humboldt, and we hereby pledge our party representatives to the support of the same.

12. That the indiscriminate licensing of persons to sell spirituous liquors without [illegible] proper restrictions for the abuses thereof having been found by experience to promote the growth of crime and pauperism, and thereby to greatly increase the rate of taxation, the Republican party recognizes the right and duty of the law making power to prevent and limit the evils and abuses of such sale, so far as concerns the public good and is consistent with individual liberty, by refusing to license other than law-abiding and responsible persons, who can furnish sufficient sureties for good conduct.

13. That the Republican party of Oregon is in favor of obtaining assistance from the General Government for the construction of a wagon road from the city of Portland to the Dalles, regarding it as a most important and necessary improvement to the State.

14. We affirm that the continuance in power of the Republican party is the only security for the safety of national peace and prosperity, and in support thereof we point to its brilliant record in the history of the war: a complete nationality, to a united sisterhood of thirty-seven States; to our Territories rapidly warming into State life; to a nation freed from the taint of human slavery; to an elevated and enlarged citizenship; to our national standing at home and abroad; to the work of vigorous reform in all departments; to [illegible] trust; to an unparalleled financial credit; to a sound financial system, and to the [illegible] peace and prosperity everywhere [illegible]; and these are our pledges for the future.

15. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by them in their late conventions in seven States, as an admission of the principles which the Republican party has ever sought to establish; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we find an acknowledgment of the hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

Multnomah Co. Republican Convention.

A Republican Convention for the county of Multnomah will be held at [illegible] Hall in the city of Portland, at 1 P. M. on Saturday, the [illegible] day of May, 1872, for the purpose of [illegible] a county ticket.

The several precincts will be entitled to delegates in said County Convention as follows:

North Portland	9	Multnomah	1
South Portland	9	Sylvan	1
Central Portland	7	Multnomah	1
East Portland	7	Willamette	1
Washington	2	Sandy	1
Oregon	3	Powell's Valley	1
Couch	4	Sauvie's Island	1

By inclosing Ten Dollars in a registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and [illegible] who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary; one of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and [illegible] too lazy to work at their trades. Some are [illegible] shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in nine cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Look at their [illegible] and disfigured faces and their [illegible] tions, disqualifying them for the happiness of [illegible] or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid [illegible] thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying [illegible] they are cared for and cured before it be too late. [illegible] them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for [illegible] years, and is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is [illegible] who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many [illegible] tended doctors who in fact all cities, publishing [illegible] in curing all diseases in a few days, [illegible] public by using the names of eminent physicians of Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse, solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost [illegible] producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallowness of [illegible], dark [illegible] the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove a failure [illegible] to him that the [illegible] of the San Francisco quacks.
